

INDIA EVERYWHERE at ANNUAL MEETING of the WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM

Touching All Senses

SPHOTE, the Sanskrit word for creative sound was the title of the INDIA ART EXHIBIT which featured paintings of 158 artists from different walks of life, united in their protests against violence and demolition. The paintings sought to convey India's message of peace.

INDIA HOUR at various hotels and bars every evening and the DAVOS INDIA PARTY created a bond with delegates and local residents who have played host to global businesspersons year after year.

Paintings of SPHOTE, the India Art Exhibit in the Kongress Centre

25-29 January 2006 • DAVOS | 9

1

India is on the road to achieving the status of a great power, boosted by sustained economic growth rates, rising exports and imports, and an improvement in the quality of life of its people. It may also soon have double-digit economic growth rates. A noteworthy development in recent years has been the active support of India by the US, EU and Japan.

JAMES F. HOGE

Editor, Foreign Affairs Magazine
Council on Foreign Relations

2

above. Expert chefs dishing out delectable Indian fare.

3

1. Sunil Bharti Mittal, Chairman, Bharti Televentures at the CII India Reception.

2. Ajit Gulabchand, Chairman, HCC at the CII India Reception.

3. International delegates savouring Indian food and spirits at the India Hour at CentralSport Hotel.